

This hand drawn logo, resurrected from the Wigwam archives, was designed around 1905 as a census seal for documentation. This design is credited to the "Candy" Wm. Smith in Wigwam Thread's packaging. It is known that this logo had never used, until now.

1905: Out of the ashes of the old Shoboygan Knitting Company grows an American icon. The Wigwam Brand of the Hand Knit Hosiery Company stamps out a legacy of quality and comfort in everything they make.

These Numbers Will All Make Good For You

2015: 110 years later the legacy continues. We've dug into our archive and pulled together some ideas to match some of our great classic styles. These great socks combine authentic style with modern fits available in "Classic" packaging. Help us celebrate 110 years.

Cypress Liquidambar
Cypress trees grow in water, with cypress knees and cypress
No border, 21 x 21 pixels
Folklore says you can't drown. But you can if you fall in.

3307 Lakewood 10/2/2004
Golden and brownish red evenly in the colored sets,
on light rock.
HN 8538, BM 80762, BM 9360, BM 102360

5504 Pine Lodge Murphy
Rusher and Gomer built this rustic cabin in 1904. It's a week, $160/night. 104 College, Box 2000, Murphy, TX 75457.
www.pinelodge.com

3305 12-Pins
The classic, original tape-weld socks. Rolls enough to last decades.
\(12-Way\) See Options

